

Justice – First Nations justice system
Party:	Australian Greens
Summary of proposal: The proposal would provide $100 million over 4 years to implement all recommendations from the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody and by partnering with First Nations communities, particularly families affected by deaths in custody. The proposal would be non-ongoing and distribute funding evenly over the 4 years of the proposal. The proposal would start on 1 July 2026.

Costing overview

The proposal would be expected to decrease the fiscal and underlying cash balances by $75 million over the 2025-26 Budget forward estimates period (see Table 1). This impact reflects an increase in departmental expenses.

The proposal would be expected to have an impact beyond the 2025-26 Budget forward estimates period. A breakdown of the financial implications (including separate public debt interest (PDI) tables) over the period to 2035-36 is provided at Attachment A.

The Parliamentary Budget Office (PBO) has not made any assessment as to whether the specified funding would be sufficient to meet the objectives of the proposal.

- Indicates nil.

Key assumptions and methodology

The proposal is capped at a fixed amount, evenly distributed over 4 years from the commencement date. Departmental expenses are as specified in the proposal. We assume that no funds allocated to a given year are left unspent.

Financial implications were rounded consistent with the PBO's rounding rules.¹
