Reallocate $4 billion to domestic defence production capabilities
Party:	Australian Greens
Summary of proposal:

The proposal would provide $4 billion over 4 years towards domestic production capabilities of defence material strictly for defensive purposes.

The proposal would be non-ongoing, distribute funding evenly over 4 years, and start on 1 July 2025.

Costing overview

The proposal would be expected to decrease the fiscal and underlying cash balances by around $4 billion over the 2025-26 Budget forward estimates period (see Table 1). This impact reflects an increase in defence expenditure.

The proposal would not be expected to have an impact beyond the 2025-26 Budget forward estimates period, other than for Public Debt Interest (PDI) costs. A breakdown of the financial implications (including separate PDI tables) over the period to 2035-36 is provided at Attachment A.

The Parliamentary Budget Office (PBO) has not made any assessment as to whether the specified funding would be sufficient to meet the objectives of the proposal. The PBO has also made no assessment as to the impact of the proposal on Australia's defence capability, or of the wider flow-on strategic and/or geo-political impacts.

Key assumptions and methodology

The proposal is capped at a fixed amount, evenly distributed over 4 years from the commencement date. Departmental expenses associated with providing funding for domestic production capabilities of defence material are assumed to be absorbed within existing resources of the Department of Defence. Administered expenses are as specified. We assume that no funds allocated to a given year are left unspent.

⁽b) PDI impacts are not included in the totals.
